

Connect.Learn.Lunch Jewish Professional Women's Network

You are cordially invited to attend a luncheon with other Jewish women professionals at

Powell Goldstein LLP ~

One Atlantic Center, 14th Floor, 1201 W. Peachtree Street, NW, Atlanta, Georgia 30309

Directions Here

March 28, 2006 ~

- 11:45 a.m. ~ Registration
- 12:00 - 1:30 p.m. ~ Connect, Learn and Lunch (please bring your business cards to share with others)

Web Site ~

- <http://www.jpwn.org>

Speaker ~

Rabbi Dr. Analia Bortz ~ Rabbi, Medical Doctor and Bioethicist, Congregation Or Hadash

www.or-hadash.org

Rabbi Bortz will speak on Embryonic Stem Cell Research - a Blessing or a Curse? The Jewish Position.

Featuring ~ Power Networking

Price ~

- $15 for Members/$25 for Non-Members

Space is Limited ~ Register by sending your check in advance by March 16 made payable to: JPWN LLC to PO Box 888975, Atlanta,

GA 30356. Please also provide your name, title, company, phone number, email address and whether you would like a kosher lunch (kosher lunches are only available if ordered in advance). Registration fee includes lunch. You will be notified by email whether you are confirmed to attend the event or whether you have been placed on the waitlist. If you are placed on the waitlist, you will receive email updates as to your status. If there is not availability, your check will be returned. Cancellations must be received by March 21 to receive a refund.

If you have any questions, please contact Ronni Solomon Abramson at 404-215-5465 or ronni@jpwn.org.

Speaker Biography ~

Rabbi Dr. Bortz is a full time rabbi at Congregation Or Hadash, Sandy Springs, Atlanta.

Rabbi Bortz has 12 years experience as a pulpit Rabbi. She was ordained as the first female Rabbi in South America. As an educator, Rabbi Bortz has 20 years experience educating adults as well as children in different institutions such as synagogues, Jewish Day Schools, Religious Schools, JCC, Hadassah Organization, American Jewish Committee, Egleston Hospital at Emory University, Scottish Rite Hospital, Catholic University of Valparaiso-Chile, The Machon Schechter Rabbinic Institute –Jerusalem, University of Buenos Aires and the Rabbinical Seminary- Buenos Aires. She has been Scholar in Residence in several cities in South America, USA, and Spain.

As a Medical Doctor, Dr. Bortz has served in different Hospital and Private Clinics in Buenos Aires-Argentina, Jerusalem Israel, Valparaiso Chile and Atlanta, GA-USA. As a Bioethicist, Dr. Bortz has created Bioethics Committees in Chile and currently is a member of the Scottish Rite/Egleston (Emory Hospital) Bioethics Committee. As a Medical Doctor with a Bioethicist background, Dr. Bortz can see the Human Soul/Body as a holistic concept to be able to approach members of her congregation, students as well as patients with an open mind.

Analia is a faculty member at Agnes Scott College in Atlanta and a fellow at the Shalom Hartman Institute in Jerusalem.

Rabbi Dr. Bortz is married to Rabbi Mario Karpuj and they have 2 daughters, Tamar (14) and Adina (9).
